Tanya Burr

"Hotel Esencia in Tulum has become one of my favourite hotels in the world. Tucked away on the perfect, white sands of Xpu-Ha Beach about a mile away from the main town, it feels like a secret. It's intimate, elegant, and luxurious without ever trying too hard. The hotel itself was once an Italian duchess's private home, and somehow, that history lingers in the way the place carries itself refined, but never pretentious. Each of the 51 rooms feels like its own little sanctuary, especially the ones with plunge pools surrounded by palm trees.
